Our Awards Ceremony was held during our Arbor Day Celebration in March 2019 at the Governor's Mansion. The Governor spoke about the value of trees, we recognized our 2019 Excellence in Urban Forestry award recipients, and we planted a rare Stern's Medlar tree on the mansion grounds. John Scott, Urban Forester for the City of Fayetteville, received the Outstanding Professional Award, Johnathan Abbott accepted the Outstanding Community Award for the City of Batesville, and Jon Terlouw accepted the Outstanding Organization Award for the Bentonville Parks Conservancy. Arkansas Secretary of Agriculture, Wes Ward, and State Forester, Joe Fox, assisted our Executive Director, Donna Hertlein, with the award presentations.

Excellence is recognized in six categories.
